1. Update on October 2012 Waitangi Tribunal Hearing

All claimants, and the Crown, presented the remaining evidence over the hearing week from October 8 to 11 in Gisborne.

Mangatu presented its evidence first followed by Ngariki Kaiputahi, Te Whanau a Kai, Te Aitanga a Mahaki and Affiliates (TAMA) and finally the Crown. When the Crown presented their evidence it vigorously defended their position to oppose our application. However this was expected as part of our ongoing struggle to get our land back.

The Mangatu team felt they:

- Continued to present the Mangatu position in the best possible manner,
- Continued to defend the Mangatu position when cross-examining the Crown's evidence and that
- We received a fair hearing in front of the Tribunal.

Mangatu owner support throughout the Hearing was greatly appreciated.

2. Closing Legal Submissions

The next step is a three-day hearing in Wellington, 27 to 29 November. The hearing will be held at ;

Waitangi Tribunal Offices
Level 7 Fujitsu Tower
141 The Terrace
Wellington.

The purpose of the next hearing is to hear closing legal submissions from all claimants and the Crown. It will deal with any other peripheral issues that flow from the October hearings.

This will be our final chance to remind the Tribunal of what we are seeking, namely the return of our 1961 land and associated entitlements. Following that hearing, the Tribunal will be considering making its determination on "to whom" the 1961 land should be returned to.

While the ultimate outcome will be out of our hands we continue to be optimistic for a successful outcome.

When the Tribunal makes its decision a further hearing on compensation will be held to determine the quantum of associated entitlement for whomever the land is to be returned.

We are cautiously optimistic that we will be one of those parties. The Mangatu remedies hearing has some way to go yet and we remain patient and resolute on behalf of all our owners.

Te Whakamutunga
